Republican Strength May Win Election and Stop Free Sugar Plan

Washington Correspondent of Star-Bulletin Points Out That Political Guessers Think Next House Is Likely to Go to G. O. P.

By C. S. ALBERT.

(Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 13.—Free sugar may not be long in effect, according to present indications. The restoration of a duty on the refined product is likely to come soon after the final removal of the last fraction of protection in 1916.

It is evident now that free sugar will play an important part in the Congressional campaign this autumn. The Democrats in the third Louisiana district have already gone over bodily to the Progressive Republicans. It is conceded that a Bull Moose will come to the house from that district in the next Congress.

The election of a Republican house will not affect the final placing of sugar on the free list. The senate will remain Democratic. In any event the president cannot recede from his position and would veto any measure originated by the Republicans and accepted by the Democrats. The restoration of a duty on sugar can come only after the election of another president in the autumn of 1916 and his assumption of office on March 4, 1917.

The best political guessers predict a landslide this autumn and the regaining of control in the house by the Republicans. It is held that the differences between Col. Roosevelt and the stand-pat leaders cannot prevent such a result. It is declared a majority of the next house will comprise old line and Progressive Republicans.

Sugar Issue Clearly Defined.

At this time the sugar issue has been clearly and prominently raised in Colorado. Former Representative John A. Martin of Pueblo has come out as a candidate for the senate against Senator Thomas. Martin was in the house two terms and is a radical supporter of the labor cause. At the same time he is against free sugar. Colorado is much interested in this question by reason of its large beet sugar industry.

REPUBLICANS OF COUNTY MAKING PLATFORM TODAY

urged by A. D. Castro, who is chairman of the platform committee.

2. Improved municipal sanitation. Senator Judd and others have been working on a plan to pledge the municipality to cooperate with the territorial and federal health officials.

3. Separate election dates for the territory and the city and county.

4. Amendment to the frontage tax laws and a pledging of the Republican candidates in this county to carry out these laws.

5. Special emphasis upon good roads.

6. Support of the anti-tuberculosis campaign. Dr. A. N. Sinclair has suggested this and George G. Guild is laying it before the committee.

7. The primary law and possible amendments may be touched upon.

8. Strengthening of fire and police departments.

"Don't Grumble—Work!"

The convention was called to order at 10:15 o'clock this morning by Vice chairman Rudolph M. Duncan, of the county committee, and from the very outset it was evident that the delegates had met for united work and that they planned to formulate a strong and progressive platform, to stand together for good measures and to adjourn and go about their business "without any foolishness," as one member put it. "Don't grumble—work!" is the keynote of the convention.

The makai pavilion of the Young Hotel roof garden proved a good place to hold the convention, cool, airy, far from noise and interruption. Chairman Duncan and E. J. Crawford, of the territorial committee took the platform, the latter as temporary secretary. The chairman wasted no time in getting to business. He read the brief call and then said:

"The people of this county are demanding efficient administration of public office. The Republican party, ever mindful of its duty, meets today by partisan conventions. I would the platform for this city and county. Our last legislature enacted a primary law by which candidates for elective office are no longer nominated by partisan conventions. I would urge that the spirit of this law be respected and that the efforts of this convention concentrate on the work at hand."

"Under the revised rules of our party, members of the new county committee of this county will be elected on the same day as the primary election. To this new committee I would say, the retiring county committee wishes you every success."

A roll call showed 36 delegates present at that time with proxies making the vote up to 45. Several delegates came in later.

Crabbe Named Chairman.

The convention showed that it meant business by naming Clarence L. Crabbe temporary chairman and E. J. Crawford temporary secretary within two minutes. Chairman Crabbe spoke briefly for a businesslike convention. A motion was made that an Senator Thomas, although from Colorado, warmly championed the cause of free sugar in the senate. He is up for reelection this fall and will have to fight it out with Martin on this question. Moreover, Martin has been more conservative in his course regarding labor than Thomas.

The issue in Louisiana. Of course, free sugar is a burning issue in Louisiana. This is made plain by the fact that prominent Democrats in that state are going over openly to the Bull Moose. The feeling among the Louisiana Democrats on the subject of free sugar is such that Progressive party leaders are doing what they can to induce Colonel Roosevelt to go to Louisiana and shout there aloud for the Bull Moose. They think the call of this leader of the herd would result in something like a stampede toward the third party in Louisiana.

It cannot yet be considered a certainty that the country will see free sugar in 1916. The opponents of it, at any rate, are going to make a fight in Congress to prevent it. They will argue that the treasury cannot afford to lose the revenue, amounting to between $50,000,000 and $60,000,000, annually. They will appeal to the Democrats on that ground.

President Must Stand Pat.

If the Republicans should gain the next house, undoubtedly the high tariff element among them will try to pass a bill providing for some tariff on sugar. However, the Republican leaders will not show a great deal of enthusiasm in this matter. It is likely, if Louisiana continues to line up in the Democratic column.

President Wilson cannot well recede from his position in favor of free sugar. Should it appear that there was serious need for the revenue on sugar, however, he might consent to a postponement of the effective date and thus throw the issue over into the next administration.

interpreter be named, but one of the Hawaiian delegates said that no interpreter was needed, as every delegate understood English well. Chairman Crabbe called attention to the fact that this was the first political convention ever held in Hawaii where an interpreter was not needed.

The chairman named William Thompson, Frank McIntyre, S. C. Dwight, Peter Baron and Clifford Kimball as a committee on credentials. The committee, after a 20-minute recess, reported the permanent roll.

The rules and permanent organization committee was then named, consisting of L. M. Judd, chairman; Apaki Manuwal, Eben P. Low, George F. Renton and Joseph Madefros. This committee took a brief recess and then reported. The report called for the convention to be governed by the parliamentary rules of Cushing's manual and provided that any member of the convention or any Republican candidate for municipal office might submit to the platform committee any plank desired. The report also provided for the appointment by the chairman of a platform committee of 15 which should draft a platform, report to the convention sitting as a committee of the whole, the committee of the whole to report to the convention itself after the platform had been duly considered.

This plan was adopted without delay and Chairman Crabbe named the following platform committee:

A. D. Castro, chairman; Carl A. Wideman, A. F. Clark, Ben H. Clarke, George G. Guild (vice A. Lewis, resigned), R. W. Brekons, Wm. Thompson, A. L. Mackaye, Chas. N. Arnold, W. C. Achi, A. W. Eames, Jr., Henry Vierra, A. F. Judd, A. D. Cooper, W. H. Crawford.

Chairman Crabbe then announced that the convention would stand adjourned until 7:30 o'clock this evening when it will meet again in the Young hotel pavilion.

Chairman Castro of the platform committee immediately called a meeting of the platform-framers in the supervisory hall and within 10 minutes the platform was being considered.

Kaunilio, by George Kekauoha; Andrew Adams, by A. F. Judd; Walter Coombs, by G. N. Arnold; David K. Bent, by John Notley; John Kekaula, by W. H. Crawford.

A bill introduced by Representative Park of Georgia would prohibit trial judges in federal courts from instructing juries what verdicts they should render.

COMMISSIONERS OF EDUCATION MEET TOMORROW

A two-days' session of the commissioners of education will be held beginning tomorrow.

Considerable routine work, composed mostly of passing on appointments and transfers will be taken up. Since the last meeting of the commission Superintendent of Instruction Kinney has made a number of transfers, but there still remain quite a number to be passed on by the commissioners.

There are not a large number of vacancies in the schools. A few more teachers are needed for the Kona, a couple on Kauai and several on Maui, and a few on windward Hawaii, but these vacancies, it is believed, will be readily filled by the graduates from the normal school.

It will probably be recommended at the meeting tomorrow that another teacher be engaged for the Hilo high school. It is estimated that the freshman class will number between 125 and 130 this year which will be a class a good deal larger than the school has had before.

It is expected that all of the commissioners, with the exception of T. Brandt of Waimea, Kauai, will be present.

CHILDREN BADLY BURNED IN FIRE EARLY THIS A. M.

Two little children of Louis Gonsalves of Mollili are today patients at the hospital suffering from frightful burns received early this morning through a fire which destroyed a portion of the home was under control following the prompt arrival of the department.

Eleanor, aged two, and Fred, aged three years, with three other children, asleep in the front rooms of the dwelling near the stone quarry, were awakened at 5:15 this morning, when the apartment was a mass of flames.

Mrs. Gonsalves heard the screams from the frightened children. The husband had left some minutes before, at that time no trace of fire being apparent.

By dint of heroic exertion, Mrs. Gonsalves dragged the children from the burning bed. While two of the little ones are badly though not fatally burned, three other children escaped with but slight injuries.

Chief Charles Thurston is unable to assign a cause for the blaze. The little girl was practically burned from head to foot. Fred, the son, received burns on the body and legs.

FOUR DISTRICT JUDGES ARE REAPPOINTED TODAY BY JUSTICE ROBERTSON

Four district magistrates were reappointed for another term in office today by Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson of the supreme court.

C. B. Hofgaard, district magistrate of Waimea, Kauai; Walter H. Hayselden, district magistrate of Wailuku, Kau, Hawaii; S. Hookano, district magistrate of Ewa district, and Guy S. Goodness of Makawao, Maui, were the four reappointed.

Ernesto Nathan, commissioner-general from Italy to the Panama-Pacific International exposition, former mayor of Rome and honorary envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary from Italy to the United States, was the center of the ceremonies dedicating Italy's site on the exposition grounds on June 3. He was welcomed at a luncheon given by the president and directors of the exposition. A brilliant reception was given on the evening of June 3 at the Fairmont hotel.

Public bequests of more than $50,000 are contained in the will of Miss Sarah Warner Clark of Beverly, Mass.

DIABETES YIELDS IN HOSPITAL

Place—Good Samaritan's Hospital in Dawson City, Alaska. Patient—G. A. Hatch, a business man of Dawson.

Prognosis—Hopeless, not only because physicians considered it so, but the condition of the patient was so extreme that death was believed to be not far away.

A friend of Hatch's heard about his plight, told him that he had been in the same fix and sent to California for Fulton's Diabetic Compound and it had restored him to business. He kept some on hand and would loan Hatch some till more could be had.

To the surprise of Hatch's friends he began to mend and four months later he was on his way for a visit to his old home in Portland, Maine. Passing through San Francisco he called and gave us this item.

The ability of Fulton's Diabetic Compound to oppose Hepatic degeneration and reduce sugar in many cases of Diabetes in people aged fifty and upwards is not a matter of opinion but a FACT IN PHYSICS, and we will mail formula that will show the percentage of sugar from week to week. As the sugar disappears improvement commonly follows, recoveries having been reported in many cases. Formula and literature mailed on request. John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco. Ask for pamphlet.—advertisement.

Electric fans have been installed in the First Presbyterian Church at Montclair, N. J. Ice water and paper cups will also be supplied.
